Please return by fax to: +1-408-228-1935 or mail to: P.O. Box 2796, Saratoga, CA 95070, USA

The WWC has developed this form with great care and with the best interests of its members and contributing authors in mind. Therefore, in order to maintain uniform treatment among all contributors, other forms may not be substituted for this form, nor may any wording of this form be changed. This form is intended for original, previously unpublished materials submitted to WWC publications. This form, when completed, must accompany any such material in order to be published by WWC. Please read it carefully and keep a copy of it for your files.

TITLE OF PAPER (hereinafter, "the work"):

AUTHOR(S): _____

Conference (Publication) Title: 2008 WORLD WIRELESS CONGRESS ®
Month and Year: May, 2008. San Francisco, USA

Copyright Transfer Form

The undersigned hereby assigns all copyright rights in and to the above work to WORLD WIRELESS CONGRESS ® BY DELSON GROUP INC (the "WWC"). The undersigned hereby represents and warrants that the work is original and that he/she is the author of the work, except possibly for material such as text passages, figures, and data that clearly identify the original source, with permission notices from the copyright owners where required. The undersigned represents that he/she has the power and authority to make and execute this assignment. In return for these rights, the WWC recognizes the retained rights noted in Items 1 and 4 below, and grants to the above authors and employers for whom the work may have been performed royalty-free license to use the material as noted in Items 2 and 3. Item 5 stipulates that authors and employers must seek permission to republish in cases not covered by Items 2, 3, and 4.

1. Employers (or authors) retain all proprietary rights in any process, procedure, or article of manufacture described in the work.
2. Authors/employers may reproduce or authorize others to reproduce the above work, material extracted verbatim from the above work, or derivative works for the author's personal use or for company use provided that the source and the WWC copyright notice are indicated, that the copies are not used in any way that implies WWC endorsement of a product or service of an employer, and that the copies themselves are not offered for sale. (See Author/Employer Rights below.)
3. Authors/employers may make limited distribution of all or portions of the above work prior to publication if they inform the WWC of the nature and extent of such limited distribution prior thereto.
4. In the case of work performed under a U.S. Government contract or grant, WWC recognizes the U.S. Government has royalty-free permission to reproduce all or portions of the above work, and to authorize others to do so, for official U.S. Government purposes only, if the contract/grant so requires.
5. For all circumstances not covered by Items 2, 3, and 4, authors/employers must request permission from the WWC Copyrights and Permissions Office to reproduce or authorize the reproduction of the work or material extracted verbatim from the work, including figures and tables. Please see notes on WWC Obligations as copyright holder.
In the event the above work is not accepted and published by the WWC or is withdrawn by the author(s) before acceptance by the WWC, this agreement becomes null and void.

Notes and Information for Authors and Their Employers

WWC POLICY: In connection with its publishing activities, it is the formal policy of the WWC to own the copyrights to all copyrightable material in its technical publications and to the individual contributions contained therein in order to protect the interests of the WWC, its authors, and their employers, and, at the same time, to facilitate the appropriate re-use of this material by others. The WWC distributes its technical publications throughout the world and does so by various means such as hard copy, microfiche, microfilm, and electronic media. It also abstracts and may translate its publications, and articles contained therein, for inclusion in various compendiums and similar publications, etc. When an article is submitted for publication to the WWC, the WWC understands that its acceptance of the article implies the WWC has the rights to do all of the things it normally does with such an article.

WWC Policy – CLEARANCE OF PAPERS — applies to all material submitted to WWC:

“The WWC must of necessity assume that material presented at its meetings or submitted to its publications is properly available for general dissemination to the audiences these activities are organized to serve. It is the responsibility of the authors, not the WWC, to determine whether disclosure of their material requires the prior consent of other parties and, if so, to obtain it.”

Furthermore, the WWC must assume, if an author uses within his/her article previously published and/or copyrighted material, that the appropriate permission has been obtained for such use and that any required credit lines, copyright notices, etc. are duly noted.

WWC OBLIGATIONS: In exercising its rights under copyright, the WWC will make all reasonable efforts to act in the interests of the authors and employers as well as in its own interest. In handling third-party reprint/republication requests for a WWC work, WWC requires that:

- 1) The consent of the first-named author be sought as a condition in granting republication (of a full paper) to others.
- 2) The consent of the employer be obtained as a condition in granting permission to others to re-use all or portions of a paper for promotion or marketing purposes.

AUTHOR/EMPLOYER RIGHTS: If you are employed and you prepared your paper as a part of your job, the rights to your paper initially rest with your employer. In that case, when you sign the copyright transfer form, we assume you are authorized to do so by your employer and that your employer has consented to all the terms and conditions of this form. If not, it should be signed by someone so authorized. (See also WWC Policy above.)
